The Third Table

1. The Pope (the new color): A forger of papal letters is to be locked in prison for life, to live on the bread of pain and the water of sorrow (Decretals, V, xl, 27). Whoever does injury to the church or priesthood will be sentenced to death (XVII. q. iv, c. 29).

2. Christ, as he is being whipped: I gave my body to the smiters and have not been rebellious (Isa. l, 5-6). You know not what manner of spirit you are. The Son of Man has come not to destroy lives but to save them (Luk. ix, 55-56). Pray for those who persecute you and slander you, and bless those who hate you (Mat. v. 44). Augustine (Below Christ and the Pope. But this is not a picture): Our religion which our Lord Jesus Christ wished to be free, with only the fewest of sacramental rites, is so oppressed by some with servile burdens that more bearable is the condition of the Jews, who are subjected not to human presump-

Nor is there anyone who may say to him, why do you do thus? (De penitencia, dist. III, c. 11). 5. You shall not add to the word that I command you, nor shall you diminish from it. Cursed be he who does not persist in the words of this law and who does not work to carry them out (Deut. iv, 2 and xxvii, 26).

6. I have come not to destroy the law but to fulfill it (Mat. v, 17). I do nothing of myself, but, as my father has taught me, I speak this (Joh. viii, 28).

7. He shall subdue kings and he shall speak words against the exalted and shall wear out the saints of the most High, and he shall think that he is able to change times and laws (Dan. vii, 24-25).

8. One man, a Doctor (the new color): The holy Roman Church imparts justice and authority to the sacred canons, but it is not bound by them (XXV. q. i, c. 16).

1. A Bishop says: A bishop is not to be accused or charged by a layman even if his conduct is irregular (II. q. vii, c. 1). Let no layman dare to bring a charge against a cleric (II. q. vii, c. 2). The Roman Church has the right to judge concerning all things, nor may it be permitted to anyone to pass judgment on its decision (IX. q. iii, c. 17).

2. Christ (the old color): Which one of you accuses me of sin? (Joh. viii, 46). If your brother has sinned against you, tell him his fault (Mat. xviii, 15). You are the salt of the earth, but if the salt has lost its savor, it is thenceforth good for nothing but to be cast out and to be trampled under foot by men (Mat. v, 13).

3. (The old color): You, who have abandoned all and followed me, you will sit judging the twelve tribes of Israel (Mat. xix, 28).
